

Diary of Ellen Claire Weaver - 1950

Sun. Jan. 1 - Wanted to go to museum but didn't. Mom and Beryl both had a tooth pulled. I have 8 cavities. Went to Imburs. They have a lovely new home.

Mon. Jan. 2 - Saw Gary off at 7 AM.. The Wilcox boys are also going back [to BYU], Carl, Clyde, Ray and Ray's beautiful wife. He got married last summer.

Tues. Jan. 3 - I decided that I would ask Nancy Walker to ask Joann if she liked me and if her girlfriends liked me.

Wed. Jan. 4 - I asked Nancy Walker to ask Joann Sandahl if she liked me and so on. I am waiting for results. The high class, well dressed Druscilla Inkson talked to me and seemed real nice.

Thurs. Jan. 5 - Went shopping with Mom. Almost bought a dress. It was brown wool, raglan sleeve and pleated skirt. I'm in love with it.

Fri. Jan. 6 - Mom called up and had the dress put away (yesterday's). Went to Mutual. Lou Ann Wheeler, Mutual teacher, had a lesson on friends and boyfriends.

Sat. Jan. 7 - I had a wonderful piano lesson. "You have what it takes," said Bea Ward. And to top it off I got my brown dress. [It was a two piece brown wool with knit cuffs and collar - my all-time favorite outfit - and I wore it for years, actually wore it out.] I watched television at Marker's house.

Sun. Jan. 8 - There's a real cute Samoan boy at church [He was in the navy stationed at Great Lakes]. Went to Fireside at Ed Smiths and he was there. Went to Hannah Mae's for dinner with Marilyn and Joy. I got mad at Alice when she hurt Ora White's feelings (jokingly).

Mon. Jan. 9 - Had to stay after school, 10th period to practice 2nd fiddle section. Couldn't practice very well. Am going to read the book, "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

Tues. Jan. 10 - I was in the hall showing the hall guard my pass and Don Santi and his friend came along and kidded that I didn't need a pass. Dad sponsored a swell talent show at school.

Wed. Jan. 11 - Went to hear the opera "The Old Maid and the Thief," starring Beryl. Wonderful, wonderful, wonderful! A real hit!! At school I got loads of compliments on my brown outfit.

Thurs. Jan. 12 - An army band played today in assembly. I had to stay 10th period to practice. Nancy Walker found out that Joanne likes me but thinks I have my own friends.

Fri. Jan. 13 - Hannah Mae felt real terrible because (it's a secret) Ray Linford loves Jean [Hannah Mae's older sister] and she egged him on. And now Jean is engaged to a certain Jack and it's going to break a heart.

Sat. Jan. 14 - Had a lesson and bought Levis for $4.00. Watched TV at Marker's while folks were at a show. Saw opera "Down in the Valley" on TV.

Sun. Jan. 15 - Decided to ask Alice to Hannah Mae's farm next summer - that will make 9 of us. Sat and talked until 11:10, the usual Sunday night chat [with parents. These were wonderful times as I recall. We had such great gospel conversations. I loved it!]

Mon. Jan. 16 - LeRoy, the boy who took lessons from Mr. Bergh and who also drove me home that time, was at school today. He graduated two years ago.

Wed. Jan. 18 - I was going to have Joann and her gang over the 26th but think I will ask church kids instead. Rumors about Frank Flamini and a Miss Roach had a real sexy affair.

Thurs. Jan. 19 - Went to dentist and had two front cavities filled. 20 more weeks of school. One week and I will be a "Freshman - A." I'll be a big shot. Ha, ha.

Fri. Jan. 20 - The police picked up two girls, 18, also are expecting, about 8 months, for carrying on on the BUS. Beryl can't make up her mind to stay or go home.

Sat. Jan. 21 - On subway a man put his hand between the seat and my leg and scared me stiff. [This was one of the most frightening experiences I had growing up. I remember looking down to see what was touching me and was shocked to see a hand. I turned around to see who it was attached to and oh, was I in for a shock! It was the creepiest face I'd ever seen. For a moment I froze in terror, then I collected my wits, moved and went to stand beside the conductor of the subway. I got off at my stop and fortunately that disgusting, degenerate creature stayed aboard.]

In the evening I went to banquet and served and had a good time dancing. For my [14th] birthday I got a bracelet and perfume.

Sun. Jan. 22 - We had Ken, Claude, Darrell and Princess Yogadi for dinner. Rollinses came over after church. That Craig is SO cute. He's about 5' 8 1/2" at just 13.

Sat. Jan. 28 - Went to Dr. Olson in Evanston. Jane and I both have to wear glasses. I am mad. Went to bed early to get rid of cold.

Sat. Feb. 4 - Dad did an old time fire engine out of wood for Spike Jones. [This was a great commission for Dad, as the Spike Jones band, touring the U. S., was very popular in those days.] Had music exams [at Chicago Musical College]. Met Mabel Rollins and we went around town together.

Sun. Feb. 5 - Today was a great event in my life. It was the first time I ever bore my testimony. I was so nervous! Hannah Mae did too. She also came over.

1950

Tues. Feb. 7 - I think, not sure, that I won't join the Sweets club. Marilyn is taking piano lessons from Bea. The Patricia Stevens modeling school called and asked me to tour their school Monday.

Wed. Feb. 8 - I told the kids I wasn't going to join their club, so now that's off my mind. [I can't believe I would offend them by refusing, and then join or form another club just a few months later!] Mom is now taking a course at Wright College.

Thurs. Nov. 23 - Thanksgiving - Elaine Carlson came and stayed all nite. Princess Yogadi came late and we all went to show. She has a hard time just keeping alive. Poor soul.

Fri. Nov. 24 - Gary is in Sweetwater, Texas now. Today I went to the Harding [theater] with Hannah Mae. It sure is cold out. I have a recital tomorrow. Will do "Cat and Mouse."

Sat. Nov. 25 - Had best recital yet. Played "Cat and Mouse." Looked for coats [shopping]. Went to square dance at church and washed dishes and got tired. Didn't have much fun.

Sun. Nov. 26 - Keith Brown wanted me to play "Cat and Mouse" in church but I refused. Beryl sang tonight and we got a ride home with Smiths. Lots of snow.

Mon. Nov. 27 - Was going to see "Mid Summer Night's Dream," up in Evanston, but went to foot clinic on Clark Street and got an X-ray taken. Still lots of snow and cold.

Tues. Nov. 28 - Moved my vanity and all my clothes out of Beryl's room into studio. Jane, maybe, will come up here. Moved Dad's desk into Beryl's room.

Wed. Nov. 29 - Had picture taken for Star for music festival. I went to the 400 Theater with Ella Rosenvinge and Inky Mademan and saw "Mid Summer Night's Dream," Shakespeare.

Thurs. Nov. 30 - Went to foot clinic and got my feet taped. Have to go twice a week. I sure need practice for my recital. Probably won't go to Mutual.

Fri. Dec. 1 - Stayed home from Mutual so I could practice my "Revolutionary Etude," Chopin. Boy! Did I practice. I have a recital tomorrow.

Sat. Dec. 2 - Had a fairly good recital today. Boy, were there the mobs downtown today!! Went to Logan Square bazaar; bought an imported silk scarf.

Sun. Dec. 3 - Heard about the Boy Scouts Glen Smith, Jim Young, Bob Andrews, etc., getting in trouble for throwing snowballs last Friday. Today I went to Jo Nell's birthday party (club).

Mon. Dec. 4 - Got a letter from Grandma. She is doing poorly. Has eye and ear trouble and doesn't seem to care much any more about life.

Tues. Dec. 5 - Went again to foot clinic and got taped up. Talked with Beryl. Her Catholic boyfriend wants to get serious and she is already pinned to Dick.

Wed. Dec. 6 - Went to club meeting at Dolores Wardzala's house. Had a real good time! Beryl's Catholic friend (who is in love with her) - she told him where he stood, etc., that romance was impossible, etc.

Thurs. Dec. 7 - They can't decided whether or not to evacuate Korea. Can't make up their minds. They say (radio) that U. S. businessmen are supplying the Communists with steel! Dirty crooks!!

Fri. Dec. 8 - Took one hour to get to Mutual. Hardly anyone was at school because of all the snow. Jane didn't get a very good report card this marking period - a couple of D's.

Sat. Dec. 9 - Saw "Macbeth" with Carol and Judy downtown. Got a letter from Gary. He says we should sell this house NOW and Dad get a sabbatical leave, go to the "Y" and hunt for another job! [This added to my parents' war fears.]

Sun. Dec. 10 - Played "Revolutionary Etude" at sacrament meeting. Played fairly. I sure hope Dad can get his sabbatical leave. Lots of snow still!

Mon. Dec. 11 - Dad thinks maybe get sabbatical in September and start building then and stay here the rest of the year. Don't know what to do.

Tues. Dec. 12 - Got a letter from Gary. He says we should go west NOW. But I think we will wait till school is out. Tonight was music festival and I played in orchestra.

Wed. Dec. 13 - Stayed home from club meeting and made some candy that I don't think turned out very well. All I can think of is our plans for the future!?!?

Thurs. Dec. 14 - Went to see foot place again. At school had trouble straightening out ticket and money accounts of orchestra. Think maybe Dad will stay and work and Mom, Jane and I will go west!?!?

Fri. Dec. 15 - An evening at home!! At last we talked about moving, etc. Have made no decisions. The nation is paralyzed by a railroad strike - of all times!

Sat. Dec. 16 - The Messiah was tonight. Bea Ward got sick and Veldron Matheson had to do all the organ work. Had to practice with the Primary kids today.

Sun. Dec. 17 - Bro. Bower and Bro. Smith were released from bishopric and Bishop Turner appointed Bro. Stonesifer and Bro. Wood, our Sunday School teacher.

Mon. Dec. 18 - We decided to wait until June to move west. Mailed off four little home-made (art classes) wagons of candy to friends and relatives. I will play for "Night of Stars!" Jan. 20th.

Tues. Dec. 19 - Joann Legones asked a club of boys called "Cavaliers" to our party. They're fast and it rather worries me. Today went to foot clinic and then to Relief Society Christmas party.

Wed. Dec. 20 - Beryl is about home to Provo now. She left Monday night with Elaine. We have done hardly any Christmas shopping at all this year. We'll not have but a small Christmas.

Thurs. Dec. 21 - Ran around school trying to play carols under the Christmas tree. Went to Carol's house to decorate for the party. What a mess! We tried to whitewash the walls. What a failure. I ate there, too.

Fri. Dec. 22 - Aunt Virginia [Holmes] called. Grandma is very sick and not expected to live. Mom is preparing to leave any time. Today was Primary Christmas program!! I have a lesson tomorrow on very short notice.

Sat. Dec. 23 - At 12:00 this morning Grandma Holmes passed away. She had a nervous stroke and never regained consciousness. That was the way she always wanted to go - quickly. Mom left on plane for Canada.

Sun. Dec. 24 - Because Mom left we got 6 invites to dinner. Williamses asked first so we go there. After church tonight we went over to Nicholoses' for a while. The grandchildren are really growing.

Mon. Dec. 25 - We had a small Christmas, but I got a new grey suit! Doesn't seem like Christmas without Mom. Went to Williamses' for dinner. Watched TV till 12:00. [We have] a blizzard, at least 6 or 7 inches of snow.

Tues. Dec. 26 - Our club party! 4 Cavaliers (boys club) came and I danced a lot with a tall, dark and cute boy named Dick Klatch. Party broke up at 3:00 AM, it was a success and stayed very tame. I slept all night with Carol.

Wed. Dec. 27 - I was so tired all day from last night. Five girls stayed with Carol on one bed! I roasted chicken for 5 hours for supper. I sure miss Mom.

Thurs. Dec. 28 - Washed up some doll clothes and in afternoon went over to Joann Costa's house. She is rather sick. I can hardly wait till school starts.

Fri. Dec. 29 - Went to Betty Matheson's and Jim Harris's [engagement] reception at North Shore and then to Logan Square New Year's Eve party, after which John took me home. He is so repulsive. I had to argue with him not to kiss me.

Sat. Dec. 30 - Dad went downtown and at 6:00 we went to show - saw "Milkman," and "Pretty Girl." I am going out with John (darn it) tomorrow to the Planetarium!

Sun. Dec. 31 - Went to Planetarium on a boring date with John. Mom came home this afternoon and after church I babysat for Veldron for a measly $1.00. Jim Harris is marrying Betty Matheson on Jan. 11th.
